Course Title: Evangelism and Soul-winning (04PT5200)

Class Schedule: Tuesdays – 9-12pm – March 10- May 5, 2020

Half day practicum – Saturday, April 25th, 1-4pm – local park

Purpose of the Course – To help students fulfill the mandate of II Tim 4:5 - “Do the work of an evangelist, (and) fulfill your ministry.”

Course Description – This Evangelism Training Course is designed to be a practical overview of the ministry of evangelism and soul winning. It is structured to cover the fundamental aspects of the biblical paradigm for evangelism as well as to equip and to train students to actively engage our culture for soul-winning purposes. The goal is to wrestle with how to authentically deliver a biblically sound faith to the current culture in the 21st century. The atmosphere will be one of highly interactive learning designed to develop in students a balance of knowledge (learning), understanding (equipping), and wisdom (engaging) in the fine art of soul-winning.

Course Objectives:

- The overall goal of the class is to stir our zeal for evangelism, root it in the soil of biblical content, and ground it on the foundation of sound theology.
- To build confidence to overcome the natural fears inherent in doing evangelism.
- To de-mystify evangelism and make it practical and understandable.
- To learn insights, approaches, and practices in evangelism that are current and relevant to reaching lost people in today’s culture.
- To learn a comprehensive view of evangelism as a process, not as point action.

Topics to be Covered

The Biblical Basis for Evangelism - Introduction and Overview:

- God’s Heart for the Lost – OT
- God’s Heart for the Lost – NT
- God’s Commission to the Church

Extension Policy

All assignments and exams are to be completed by the deadlines announced in this syllabus or in class.

Extensions for assignments and exams due within the normal duration of the course must be approved beforehand by the Professor. Extensions of two weeks or less beyond the date of the last deadline for the course must be approved beforehand by the Professor. A grade penalty may be assessed.

Extensions of greater than two weeks but not more than six weeks beyond the last deadline for the course may be granted in extenuating circumstances (i.e. illness, family emergency). For an extension of more than two weeks the student must request an Extension Request Form from the Student Services Office. The request must be approved by the Professor and the Academic Dean. A grade penalty may be assessed. (RTS Catalog p. 42 and RTS Atlanta Student Handbook p. 14)

Any incompletes not cleared six weeks after the last published due date for course work will be converted to a failing grade. Professors may have the failing grade changed to a passing grade by request. (RTS Catalog p. 42)

Teacher/Professor – This course will be led by Dr. James Saxon, an ordained PCA minister since 1979, who has actively served in the pastorate for the last 41 years. He was converted to Christ at the age of twenty while a student at the University of Alabama. His conversion was so dramatic that he decided against going into the business world with his Marketing Degree and instead began pursuit of his call to pastoral ministry by enrolling in RTS Jackson in the summer of 1975. After serving as a youth director for two summers, and taking a year internship at the well-known Spanish River Presbyterian Church in Boca Raton, Florida, he discerned God’s calling to go into church planting. He founded and pastored the Tampa Bay Presbyterian Church, in Tampa, Florida for 20 years and had oversight of the founding of one daughter church, Redeemer Presbyterian Church in Brandon, Florida. He joined the staff of the fast-growing, outreach-minded Church of The Apostles in Atlanta in the fall of 2000. Since coming to Apostles, he has served in a variety of staff roles and is currently serving as the Director of Evangelism and Outreach.

In addition to being a successful church-planter, James spearheaded the founding of the Southwest Florida Presbytery in the early 1990’s, and then led the effort to host the 2000 General Assembly in Tampa by that presbytery. He graduated from the RTS Doctorate of Ministry program in the spring of 2005, completing his dissertation entitled, “Empowering the Local Church through Mentoring” which featured a practicum that field-tested mentoring seminary students as a part of their theological education.

He is currently the supervisor of “The Christianity Examined Process” at Apostles, through which many lost people have been converted. This outreach initiative is a cutting-edge evangelism/discipleship strategy that inculcates many current ideas and approaches that are successfully being utilized in soul-winning around the country. This strategy and much more will be covered in this course, which will be conducted in a hands-on, interactive atmosphere.

*Since 2005, he has served as a guest lecturer at RTS Atlanta and has taught three courses, Evangelism, Pastoral Ministry, and Leadership. Though he is currently involved in outreach ministry, he is a pastor at heart and his life ministry verse is Colossians 1:28, “And we proclaim Him, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, that we may present every man complete in Christ.” He has been married to his wife Cindy for 38 years and has two daughters, Natalie and Adrienne. His wife Cindy is much better at personal evangelism than he is.
