

The Center for Church Planting Application

In an effort to aid students with both a real interest in church planting education and a real financial need, the RTS-Charlotte Center for Church Planting is committed to providing resources for students enrolled in the Master of Divinity Church Planting Emphasis program in order to prepare them better for a call to mission. Through the generous gifts of individuals, churches, networks, and presbyteries, the Center for Church Planting is equipped to help students defray the costs of their theological education.
