02PT5100 – Communication I

Course Syllabus – Spring 2022

Instructor: Associate Professor Michael Glodo

Office hours: Tuesdays and Wednesdays at 1:00 p.m. and just about any other time by prior arrangement. I am on campus Tuesday through Thursday and usually on Monday.

Contact information: Professor Glodo: mglodo@rts.edu, (407)278-4476 direct Communication: I prefer communicating in person (and so should you!), but email and Canvas are fine, too. If we are Facebook “friends,” please don’t use the messaging function in place of email. I won’t respond to email between Saturday evenings and Monday mornings.

Class meeting: Wednesdays, 9:00-11:00am

Prerequisites:

None

Required Reading/Viewing

The following reading is required and will be integrated into the lectures and assignments. Pages assigned are indicated in the course schedule.

Chapell, Bryan. Christ-Centered Preaching, 3rd ed. Grand Rapids: Baker Publishing, 2018. ISBN 978-0801099748.

Glodo, Michael J. “In Defense of the Ass: Is the Sermon a ‘Relic of the Reformation?’” Reformation 21, April 2015. Available on Canvas.

----- “Prayer and Worship.” Wisdom Wednesday, Feb 14, 2017. Link available on Canvas.

Henry, Matthew. A Way to Pray, Repr., ed. O. Palmer Robertson. Carlisle, PA: Banner of Truth, 2020. ISBN 978-1848718609.¹

Johnson, Terry L. and J. Ligon Duncan III, "Reading and Praying the Bible in Corporate Worship" in Give Praise to God: A Vision for Reforming Worship, ed. Philip Graham Ryken, et al. Phillipsburg, NJ: P&R Publishing, 2011. 140-69. Available on Canvas.

Old, Hughes Oliphant. Leading in Prayer: A Workbook for Worship. Grand Rapids: Eerdmans Publishing, 1995. ISBN 978-0802808219.

Homework Assignments.

Homework assignments will apply lecture and reading materials and provide steps to the completion of your final sermon manuscript. Assignments will be announced in class each week and are due at the start of class on the due date.

Quizzes.

Quizzes based on the readings due and the lectures from the previous week are due at the start of class on the dates indicated. You may not use books or notes. The quizzes will be closed at the start of class on the due date. Quiz descriptions will indicate material covered, number of questions, and time allotted for each. Quizzes may be taken twice with the average grade counting. The quizzes are timed. If you have a physical or diagnosed learning disability or if English is your second language, let me know and you will be granted additional time.

Public Prayer Project.

With the ultimate aim of preparing you to conduct the ministry of public prayer, you will complete assignments found in the Prayer Project document available on Canvas. These assignments will be based on Hughes Old's Leading in Prayer and are to be submitted on Canvas. It is recommended that you complete the assignments in the document, then copy and paste each assignment into the relevant assignment on Canvas rather than completing the assignments directly into Canvas.

Closet Prayer Project.

A common lament about seminary is the difficulty in maintaining a vital devotional life because of so many other demands. This assignment is actually going to give you credit for praying! It's like getting credit for eating! Matthew Henry's A Way to Pray is a classic that every Christian would profit from knowing and using, especially someone in ministry. Therefore, to make this assignment that much easier and more valuable, you will use AWtP for your prayers.

For weeks two through ten of the semester, at least twice a week (you can do it more, and should), you will pray a portion of each of the six main subjects of prayer (praise, confession, petition, thanksgiving, intercession, conclusion) by praying a portion of those sections from Henry. For the final three weeks you will twice each week pray a portion of "The Lord's Prayer Expanded." Record your prayer times using the form in this syllabus and submit it mid-semester and at the end of the semester. No more than two in any one week may count because the full benefit of this exercise is doing it as a habit, not all at once.

Sermon Manuscript.

By the term paper deadline indicated in the schedule you will submit a full sermon manuscript for a 30-minute sermon (approx. 4,500 words) based on an assigned scripture text and conforming to the requirements covered in the readings and lectures. The manuscript must have a cover sheet that contains the FCF, big idea, main point outline, and transition statements between each main point. All of these are to be highlighted in the manuscript itself as well. The intended audience for this sermon is a typical Sunday morning worship service.

Classroom Environment.

We are an incarnate, embodied learning community with all the attendant joys and obligations. Your registration for this course constitutes your good faith commitment to love your neighbor by faithfully attending class unless providentially hindered, arriving on time, removing hats, returning from breaks in a timely manner, and remaining in class except at breaks or for urgent reasons. Take whatever measures are necessary to keep these commitments to one another.

Computers, tablets, & mobile phones

Printed lecture handouts will be provided each week. Computers, tablets, and mobile phones will not be permitted for use while class is in session. This policy makes me a better teacher and you and you and your classmates better learners. This means that all computers, tablets, and mobile phones are to be out of sight while class is in session unless you have urgent professional or personal reasons to be reachable. Please see me if that is the case. You are free to use your devices during breaks.

This policy has a twofold purpose. One is to maximize the learning opportunity provided by the course. The other is a more long-term purpose – to encourage and facilitate attentiveness, to mitigate the general distractedness epidemic, and ultimately to help you be more human and a better servant of the Lord. The subject of media ecology is covered in Communication 2.

Class Recordings

Students are welcome to record class lectures for themselves. I record lectures and upload them to the cloud. I will give semester-long access to these recordings for students 1) for whom English is a second language or 2) who have a diagnosed learning disability. Other students who are providentially hindered from attending particular lectures may request the recordings for those lectures by providing a legitimate excuse for his or her absence.

Closet Prayer Project – A Way to Pray Log

Pray a small portion of each category for every session. Record the dates and page numbers for each portion in the spaces provided.
