NOTE: Please do not email or text for questions on assignments or to request extensions. The following contacts should be via Canvas:

- 1) Extension requests must be made in the individual comment section where the student would submit that assignment on Canvas.
- 2) Questions about assignments should be made in the general comments section regarding that assignment (visible to all).
- 3) More general class questions should be made in the Professor/Student discussion forum in Canvas.

If the issue is not covered by these three categories, then please email me. You are welcome to have my cell phone, but please only text me for emergencies. The three categories above are not emergencies.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: An examination of the literary structure, themes, and history of the Prophetic literature of the Old Testament, with special attention on the fulfillment of prophecy in Jesus Christ.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Comprehension:

1. To increase your knowledge of the English Bible of the books Isaiah-Malachi.
2. To increase your understanding of the message(s) of the books Isaiah-Malachi, both separately and together.

Competence:

1. To sharpen your ability to understand and interpret Hebrew prophets.
2. To sharpen your ability to interpret the books Isaiah-Malachi in their historical, theological, and literary contexts.
3. To sharpen your ability to teach and preach the books Isaiah-Malachi in the context of the local church.
4. To prepare those called to pastoral ministry for licensure and ordination exams at their local church assemblies and examination boards.

Character:

1. To sharpen your application of the themes of the books Isaiah-Malachi in your personal spiritual life.
2. To be a person of growing faith, hope, and love based on the work of God as revealed in these books.

REQUIRED READINGS:

- Biblical books of Isaiah-Malachi in two English translations of the student's choice.
- Robert B. Chisolm, Handbook on the Prophets (CH) – portions
- Dillard and Longman, Introduction to the Old Testament (DL) – portions
- VanGemeren, Interpreting the Prophetic Word (VG) – portions
- M. VanPelt (ed.), A Biblical-Theological Introduction to the Old Testament: The Gospel Promised (BTIOT) – portions
- Richard Pratt, “Historical Contingencies and Biblical Predictions” (avail. by .pdf)
- Frederico Villanueva, Lamentations (Asia Bible Commentary)
- Walzer, “The Prophet as Social Critic” (avail. by .pdf)

REQUIREMENTS:

Attendance: Students are required to attend class sessions. If you know you cannot make it to a class session, you must notify the instructor in advance. Attendance will be taken, and multiple absences will result in a grade reduction. Failure to attend a significant number of classes (with “significant” being defined at the discretion of the instructor) may result in failure of the class.

If students miss class on a given week, they will be expected to not only make up the material covered but to also submit an extra assignment showing that they have successfully mastered the material they would have covered in class. This assignment will be established by the professor.

Reading: Students should complete all readings by the deadlines in the course schedule below.

Quizzes: Students will be quizzed on the Bible reading assigned for each session of the course. These quizzes will be given at the start of class. Students should not expect to come late and be able to take the quiz. No make up quizzes will be given; however, the lowest quiz grade will be dropped.

Professor Interaction Assignments (10 total): Starting in week 4, students will be assigned passages each week to which to apply the skills taught up to that point in this class. Students should come to class the next week prepared to discuss the passage and their analysis of it, including presentation to the class of their findings. Students should produce a SHORT (max. 3 pages) written submission that summarizes their work. This must be submitted as a .pdf file before the start of class each week via Canvas where it will receive individual feedback from the professor. More details will be given weekly in class and on Canvas regarding the content of this assignment, as it will shift over the course of the semester.

Paper: Students must submit a full research paper formatted in accordance with RTS guidelines and including a full bibliography. Students are also encouraged to integrate material from other classes into this paper as appropriate. Students may choose one of two options:

- Exegetical Paper – Students may write an exegetical paper on Isaiah 38:1-8. This paper should explain the meaning and significance of this section within the book of Isaiah, within the Scriptures as a whole, and within the church today. This exegetical paper should include a Hebrew text with text critical notes, a translation with grammatical and lexical notes, and the paper itself.

- Topical Paper – Students may write a topical paper on one of the major problems of interpretation in the prophets (i.e.: the authorship of Isaiah, the expectation of Ezekiel's temple, the marriage of Hosea and Gomer, the date of the book of Joel, how Matthew 27 claims to be quoting Jeremiah, etc.) Selections require the approval of the professor by March 1. Students who have taken Hebrew are highly encouraged to involve original language tools and analysis in their paper.

This paper will be due May 12, 2022. Papers should be submitted as a .pdf via Canvas.

Note: Students who are interested in doing additional graduate study beyond their RTS degree MUST contact the instructor in advance, as these requirements may be adjusted to better prepare the student for his or her future course of study.

TOTAL GRADE: The final grade for the course will be determined as follows:

Quizzes: 20%
Attendance 10%
Class Preparation: 35%
Final Paper: 35%

Grades will be assigned according to the RTS grading system. The instructor reserves the right to adjust grades based on each student's attendance at class and participation in classroom discussion.

EXTENSION POLICY: All assignments and exams are to be completed by the deadlines announced in this syllabus or in class.

Extensions for assignments and exams due within the normal duration of the course must be approved beforehand by the Professor. Extensions of two weeks or less beyond the date of the last deadline for the course must be approved beforehand by the Professor. A grade penalty may be assessed.

Extensions of greater than two weeks but not more than six weeks beyond the last deadline for the course may be granted in extenuating circumstances (i.e. illness, family emergency). For an extension of more than two weeks the student must request an Extension Request Form. The request must be approved by the Professor and the Academic Dean. A grade penalty may be assessed (RTS Catalog p. 42).

Any incompletes not cleared six weeks after the last published due date for course work will be converted to a failing grade. Professors may have the failing grade changed to a passing grade by request. (RTS Catalog p. 42)

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

MDiv* Student Learning Outcomes In order to measure the success of the MDiv curriculum, RTS has defined the following as the intended outcomes of the student learning process. Each course contributes to these overall outcomes. This rubric shows the contribution of this course to the MDiv outcomes. *As the MDiv is the core degree at RTS, the MDiv rubric will be used in this syllabus.		Rubric <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strong • Moderate • Minimal • None 	Mini-Justification
Articulation (oral & written)	Broadly understands and articulates knowledge, both oral and written, of essential biblical, theological, historical, and cultural/global information, including details, concepts, and frameworks. Also includes ability to preach and teach the meaning of Scripture to both heart and mind with clarity and enthusiasm.	Strong	Weekly Assignments, Paper
Scripture	Significant knowledge of the original meaning of Scripture. Also, the concepts for and skill to research further into the original meaning of Scripture and to apply Scripture to a variety of modern circumstances. (Includes appropriate use of original languages and hermeneutics; and integrates theological, historical, and cultural/global perspectives.)	Strong	Exegetical Focus, Significant Paper, Readings
Reformed Theology	Significant knowledge of Reformed theology and practice, with emphasis on the Westminster Standards.	Moderate/Strong	Reformed Approach to Inspiration, Eternal Decree, and Providence essential to understanding prophets
Sanctification	Demonstrates a love for the Triune God that aids the student's sanctification.	Medium	Close study of the Word of God sanctifies; strong devotional components of Scripture
Worldview	Burning desire to conform all of life to the Word of God. Includes ability to interact within a denominational context, within the broader worldwide church, and with significant public issues.	Strong	Material is taught thoroughly within and analyzed against redemptive-historical worldview
Winsomely Reformed	Embraces a winsomely Reformed ethos. (Includes an appropriate ecumenical spirit with other Christians, especially Evangelicals; a concern to present the Gospel in a God-honoring manner to non-Christians; and a truth-in-love attitude in disagreements.)	Moderate	Discussion and evaluation of contributions from other traditions in a respectful and honoring way
Pastoral Ministry	Ability to minister the Word of God to hearts and lives of both church and unchurched, to include preaching, teaching, leading in worship, leading and shepherding the local congregation, aiding in spiritual maturity, concern for non-Christians.	Moderate	Exegetical work that forms the backbone of strong preaching; frequent discussion of applications for preaching
