NOTE: Please do not email or text for questions on assignments or to request extensions. The following contacts should be via Canvas:

- 1) Extension requests must be made in the individual comment section where the student would submit that assignment on Canvas.
- 2) Questions about assignments should be made in the general comments section regarding that assignment (visible to all).
- 3) More general class questions should be made in the Professor/Student discussion forum in Canvas.

If the issue is not covered by these three categories, then please email me. You are welcome to have my cell phone, but please only text me for emergencies. The three categories above are not emergencies.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: An introduction to the Hebrew language of the Old Testament Scriptures.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. To glorify God by and while learning to read the Old Testament in its original language.
2. To enable the student to read and translate from portions of the Hebrew Old Testament.
3. To aid the student in preparation of teaching the Scriptures.
4. To equip the student to understand lexical aids and commentaries on the Old Testament.

REQUIRED Texts:

- Ellinger and Rudolph (eds.), Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia
- Fullilove, W. Introduction to Hebrew: a Guide to Learning and Using Biblical Hebrew. Philipsburg, NJ: P&R Publishing, 2017.
- Holladay, W. A Concise Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon of the Old Testament. Grand Rapids: Eerdmans, 1988.

REQUIREMENTS:

Online preparation: Students are required to read the textbook chapter, watch all videos, and complete all homework BEFORE class each week.

Student-to-Professor Interactions: Students are required to attend class sessions with the professor each Thursday. If you know you cannot make it to a class session, you must notify the instructor in advance. Attendance will be taken, and multiple absences will result in a grade reduction. Failure to attend a significant number of classes (with “significant” being defined at the discretion of the instructor) may result in failure of the class.

Class Attendance: Students are required to attend class sessions with the professor each Thursday. If you know you cannot make it to a class session, you must notify the instructor in advance. Attendance will be taken, and multiple absences will result in a grade reduction. Failure to attend a significant number of classes (with “significant” being defined at the discretion of the instructor) may result in failure of the class.

If students miss class on a given week, they will be expected to not only make up the material covered but to also submit an extra assignment showing that they have successfully mastered the material they would have covered in class. This assignment will be established by the professor.

Tutoring Sessions: Course TA's will meet with the students to continue their practice. While the tutoring sessions are not strictly mandatory, they are highly encouraged. If a student's quiz average falls below 90, tutoring sessions will become mandatory.

Homework: Students are required to complete and hand in all assigned homework at class on the week a chapter is covered. (i.e.: The homework for Chapter 14 is due at class on Feb. 3.) Homework may or may not include all exercises in the textbook, so students should take care each week to note which exercises are assigned. After students have completed the homework working on their own, they should use the key (available at www.introductiontohebrew.com) to self correct the homework. The self-corrections should be in a DIFFERENT COLOR from the homework done by the student. So long as the assignment has been reasonably completed and the corrections are all marked, the student will receive full credit for the homework done. Late homework is accepted up until the date of the midterm or final exam but will receive a maximum of half credit.

Quizzes: At each class students will be quizzed covering the cumulative grammar and vocabulary in the course. There will be NO “make up” quizzes if a student is absent. However, the lowest three quiz grades will be dropped.

Midterm and Final Exams: The midterm and final exam will include the same type of material included in the homework and/or quizzes.

TOTAL GRADE:

The final grade for the course will be the total of each of the required assignments listed above.

Homework (20%)

Thursday Class Performance (15%)

Attendance (10%)

Quizzes (20%)

Hourly Exams (15%)

Final Exam (20%)

The instructor reserves the right to adjust grades based on each student's attendance at class and participation in classroom exercises.

NOTE!!!

- Don't get behind! A language course is by necessity cumulative. If you get behind, you will be simultaneously trying to learn old and new material. This is a recipe for disaster!
- Be consistent! Studying a language is much more effective if done daily. You did not learn English (or whatever your native tongue may be) by looking at it once per week. Do not expect to learn Hebrew that way either!
- Take small bites! Four half hour study sessions are noticeably more effective than one two hour session.
- Ask questions! Class time is meant to serve the students. Take advantage of the time you have. Don't just keep your head down and try to fake your way through if something does not make sense.
- Contact the professor or teaching assistant for one-on-one help! Do not hire an outside tutor, and don't merely look up the answer. Get help if you need it.
- Trust in the Lord! Generations of seminarians have successfully learned Hebrew. You can, too.

OFFICE HOURS:

Thursdays 5:00-6:00. I am always also available by appointment, including before or after class or by phone.
