FIELD EDUCATION SEMINAR 02PT5905/01

Fall Semester 2022

August 24 – November 30, 2022

COURSE SYLLABUS

Instructor: Rev. Mike Osborne, Dean of Students & Director of Field Ed/Placement

Schedule: Wednesdays 4:00-5:00pm in the Kistemaker Seminar Room

E-mail address: mosborne@rts.edu

Phone Number: (407) 970-8847

Office Hours: By appointment

Course Purpose:

The purpose of this seminar is to apply what has been learned in the classroom to the daily and often rugged challenges of pastoral leadership. This seminar will give students a broader understanding of issues faced in church ministry, practical tools for their first job in a ministry setting, greater self-awareness and confidence in God's calling, and interaction with peers about their Field Education experience.

Course Objectives:

During this seminar, students will process their field education experience:

- Biblically and theologically with the goal of seeking to understand how God's Word and personal calling intersect with the realities of ministry.
- Corporately through class interaction about the Field Education experience.*
- Personally through self-reflection and evaluation.

(* Students in the Hybrid program must register for the FE Seminar but they do not have class interaction like resident students. The requirements for Hybrid students are to: (1) complete the assignments listed below by the deadlines specified, (2) listen to audio recordings of weekly class interaction, and (3) respond to each recording with a comment on Canvas.)

Course Prerequisite:

Students must complete at least 400 hours of approved field experience while they are attending RTS (previous ministry experience does not count) and at least 40 hours of mentoring by their field supervisor. Both the student's and the supervisor's evaluations must be received and approved by the Director of Field Education before students can register for the seminar.

Course Requirements

Assignments:

- 1. Read any one of the following books (not previously read):
 - Surviving Ministry: How to Weather the Storms of Church Leadership by Mike Osborne
 - Dangerous Calling by Paul David Tripp
 - The Contemplative Pastor by Eugene Peterson
 - Leading with a Limp by Dan Allender
 - The Imperfect Pastor by Zach Eswine
 - The Shepherd Leader by Timothy Witmer
 - The Pastor's Justification by Jared Wilson
 - Clergy Killers by G. Lloyd Rediger
- 2. Write a 500-1000 word reflection paper on the book you chose to read, in which you answer ALL the following questions:
 - What were the three most significant ideas, statements, or principles in the book for you? Why were they impactful?
 - How might you implement those three significant ideas in your future ministry?
 - What do you anticipate will make it challenging to implement those three significant ideas in your future ministry?
 - What will be necessary for you to do in order to meet the challenges you've identified?
- 3. Create your résumé: It should include a concisely stated Objective, Experience, Education, Skills, and References (not to exceed two pages). Several model résumés are posted on Canvas for reference.
- 4. Class Attendance and Participation (resident students only): In order to fully benefit from this seminar, you must both attend all the classes and be an active participant.
- 5. Oral Presentation: Resident students will make a live, oral presentation to the class on their Field Education experience. Hybrid students will video record their presentation and post it on Canvas. The presentation should be no more than 20 minutes long. For all students, the following information should be included:

- Ministry Situation and Overall Environment: This is to be a comprehensive but gracious description of the church, your Field Ed supervisor, the people you ministered alongside, and the people to whom you ministered.
- Personal Strength and Weaknesses: This is to be a candid self-evaluation of your strengths and weaknesses in ministry and the factors that contributed to each. Strengths should not be viewed as boasts nor should weaknesses as self-deprecation. Please include not only self-realized strengths and weaknesses but any areas you have become aware of through your ministry experience and time at RTS.
- Challenging Personal Relationships: This should be a forthright analysis and assessment of your relationship with someone(s) with whom you had difficulties or conflicts during your field education experience. Describe what effect it had on your ministry and yourself. What did you learn from this conflict? How will you handle similar conflicts in the future?
- Positive Personal Relationships: This is an analysis of a positive relationship and the reasons you consider it to have been beneficial. Describe why this was a positive relationship and how it affected you and your ministry experience. How will this affect your future ministry? How will you foster healthy relationships in the future?
- Field Education Experience & Lessons Learned:
 - Obescribe your view of the local church before starting seminary and before your field education experience. Has it changed? If so, how?
 - Describe the various ministry opportunities you had during your field education (preaching, teaching, visitation, etc.). What did you learn about each aspect of ministry and your giftedness in them?
 - o What could have made your field education experience more effective?

Course Grading:

Grading Scale: This seminar is Pass (P) or Fail (F). A grade of Fail (F) will result from unexcused absences, failure to complete the assignments, or (for resident students) a significant lack of participation in class discussion.

Course Objectives Related to MDiv* Student Learning Outcomes

Course: Field Ed Seminar 02PT5905 Professor: Mike Osborne Campus: Orlando

Date: Fall 2022

MDiv* Student Learning Outcomes In order to measure the success of the MDiv curriculum, RTS has defined the following as the intended outcomes of the student learning process. Each course contributes to these overall outcomes. This rubric shows the contribution of this course to the MDiv outcomes. *As the MDiv is the core degree at RTS, the MDiv rubric will be used in this		Rubric > Strong > Moderate > Minimal > None	Mini-Justification
Articulation (oral & written)	syllabus. Broadly understands and articulates knowledge, both oral and written, of essential biblical, theological, historical, and cultural/global information, including details, concepts, and frameworks. Also includes ability to preach and teach the meaning of Scripture to both heart and mind with clarity and enthusiasm.	Moderate	Student prepares an oral presentation on Field Ed experience and interacts on required reading.
Scripture	Significant knowledge of the original meaning of Scripture. Also, the concepts for and skill to research further into the original meaning of Scripture and to apply Scripture to a variety of modern circumstances. (Includes appropriate use of original languages and hermeneutics; and integrates theological, historical, and cultural/global perspectives.)	Minimal	Student does not engage with Scripture in the original languages but interacts with how Scripture intersects with ministry in the local church.
Reformed Theology	Significant knowledge of Reformed theology and practice, with emphasis on the Westminster Standards.	Minimal	Student evaluates how Reformed Theology worked itself out in his field education experience.
Sanctification	Demonstrates a love for the Triune God that aids the student's sanctification.	Strong	Through reading, class discussion and personal reflection student will assess his growth in the Gospel.
Desire for Worldview	Burning desire to conform all of life to the Word of God. Includes ability to interact within a denominational context, within the broader worldwide church, and with significant public issues.	Strong	Student gains a deeper understanding of the mission of God as it works out in the local church.
Winsomely Reformed	Embraces a winsomely Reformed ethos. (Includes an appropriate ecumenical spirit with other Christians, especially Evangelicals; a concern to present the Gospel in a God-honoring manner to non-Christians; and a truth-in-love attitude in disagreements.)	Moderate	Through class discussion student will evaluate various theologies of ministry, showing the value of ecumenism.
Pastoral Ministry	Ability to minister the Word of God to hearts and lives of both churched and unchurched, to include preaching, teaching, leading in worship, leading and shepherding the local congregation, aiding in spiritual maturity, concern for non-Christians.	Strong	If student preached, led worship, or participated in worship planning in his field experience, those will be evaluated. Student evaluates his shepherding skills during field experience. Emphasis will be on how to be more effective in shepherding.
