Office hours: By appointment / Usually, the hour prior to class in the library.

Course description:

This course is the general introduction to Christianity in the early and medieval periods. The focus will be on the key figures, movements and ideas that have contributed significantly to the history and doctrine of the Church. As an outcome of the course, students should have a general grasp of Christian history from the first through the fifteenth century, and with it a working knowledge of the major ecclesiastical issues and personalities of this period of church history, with particular reference to Europe and North Africa.

Goals:

- 1. The student will be introduced to the history of the Christian Church during its first fifteen centuries, particularly emphasizing the way certain beliefs and practices have shaped Christian identity.
- 2. Through the lectures, the student will be exposed to the cultural and political contexts of Christian thought and develop a greater critical appreciation for the Christian tradition.
- 3. Through the reading and discussions, the student will be oriented to key figures, beliefs, practices, and stories in the life of the Christian Church and will explore how they relate to contemporary Christian life and ministry.
- 4. Through the primary source readings, the student will appreciate catholic, and particularly Augustinian identity, as a confluence of beliefs, practices, and commitments, which continue to have importance in our world, especially as Protestants.
- 5. Through the Digest Papers, and Exams, the student will reflect on how Christian identity, and doctrine, as represented over the studied period, has relevance for contemporary Christian life and ministry.

Course Requirements

1) Reading Digests 30%

Students will be required to submit four (4) 1750–1950 word (five to six pages typed and double spaced) digests of primary source material. One digest will be required for each of the primary source readings by Augustine and Anselm totalling two (2) digests. A further two (2) digests will be of the student's own choosing from a primary source reading from the Kerr anthology. One (1) digest from Part 1 (Justin Martyr to John of Damascus), and one (1) digest from Part 2 (Abelard to Thomas à Kempis) totalling (2) digests.

| Due Dates: | Kerr, Part 1 | 20 September 2023       |  |

The grade "I" indicates that the work required for the course was not completed. It is given only when special, extenuating circumstances (such as illness) prevent the student from completing the work or taking the examination. A written request for an extension must be submitted prior to the due date of the work concerned. If the request is granted, it remains the responsibility of the student to complete all work for the course as soon as possible. In any case, an "I" grade must be removed within the extension time granted; otherwise it will be changed to "F."

Late work:

Late work is not accepted. All assignments are due at the beginning of class. Only serious personal issues, with excuses almost always cleared in advance of the class, are given consideration. If you are traveling for some important reason and cannot attend class, please arrange to have your work delivered on time.

Incomplete work:

Given that late work is not accepted, students should consider submitting incomplete work rather than nothing at all.
