

Your Gifts, Countless Lives

GENEROSITY
REPORT
2025

Dear Friends,

"And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ" (Ephesians 4:11-12).

As I write to you today, my heart overflows with gratitude for the faithful partnership you've shown Reformed Theological Seminary throughout this past year. Your generous support has enabled us to continue the vital work of preparing those whom God has called to serve His church, a mission that has remained unchanged for over 60 years.

When Paul wrote about God's gift of teachers and shepherds to His church, he understood what we see lived out daily at RTS: Christ is giving godly, gifted people to the church to equip the church for the work of ministry. This is precisely what your gifts accomplish at RTS. When you support theological education, you're ensuring that Christ continues to gift His church with faithful shepherds who will equip the saints, build up the body, and lead congregations toward Christian maturity.

This year, we've witnessed God's continued faithfulness through your generosity. Across all of our campuses, we've seen students equipped not just with knowledge, but prepared to pour themselves into God's people so that the whole church might be strengthened for service. Our faculty, themselves faithful shepherds and teachers, have poured into the next generation with both scholarly rigor and pastoral warmth.

Yet as we celebrate what God has accomplished, our eyes remain fixed on the horizon. The church of tomorrow needs leaders who are grounded in God's unchanging Word yet ready to engage an ever-changing world. The church needs pastors, missionaries, counselors and ministry leaders who understand that their calling is not to do all the ministry themselves, but to prepare God's people to serve one another and reach the world with the gospel.

Your partnership makes this preparation possible. When you give to RTS, you're investing in those who will shepherd God's people, plant churches, and proclaim the gospel for decades to come. You're ensuring that Christ's pattern of gifting His church with godly leaders who know the truth we hold dear will be passed on faithfully to the next generation.

Thank you for your faithfulness. Thank you for seeing beyond the present moment to the eternal impact of preparing those who will serve Christ's church in the years to come.

In Christ's service,

Ministry Without Borders

MATTHEW DEANS

Washington D.C. | MDiv 2021

As an Army Chaplain with the 5th Special Forces Group, Matthew's ministry reaches far beyond traditional church walls. His RTS training gave him deep theological roots and biblical instincts that sustain him in isolated, high-stress military environments. He ministers to soldiers and their families through preaching, counseling, Bible studies, and prayer breakfasts, while building meaningful relationships with chaplains from diverse backgrounds. His influence multiplies through the soldiers he serves—men and women who carry his pastoral impact to bases around the world and eventually into civilian communities.

Planting Churches, Building Networks

HUNTER TOWNSEND BREWER

Orlando | MDiv 2003, DMin 2020

Hunter's ministry shows multiplication at its finest—he hasn't just planted churches, he's created systems for ongoing church planting. After founding Trinity Church PCA in Collierville, Tennessee during a challenging season, he established a church planting network that continues to spawn new congregations. His RTS education's emphasis on the centrality of God's Word has proven to be the foundation that enables sustainable church multiplication, with each new plant carrying forward the same biblical grounding that equipped him for both pastoral ministry and missional expansion.

Multiplying Ministry Through Word & Writing

TIM MULDER

Houston | MDiv 2022

Tim's ministry demonstrates how theological training creates multiple avenues for kingdom impact. As a Ruling Elder in the PCA, he has faithfully provided pulpit supply throughout the South Texas Presbytery, bringing consistent biblical preaching to churches across the region when pastoral needs arise. His commitment to strengthening the church extends beyond weekly preaching through his writing ministry, having authored several books including The Armchair Theologian's Guide to the Westminster Confession of Faith and Ruth: A Story of God's Redeeming Love. Through faithful pulpit ministry and accessible theological resources, Tim multiplies his RTS education by serving numerous congregations while helping believers grow in biblical understanding.

From Church Pastor to Community Pastor

ZACH BYRD

Jackson | MDiv 2021

Zach's ministry demonstrates how faithful pastoral presence can transform an entire community. Serving two rural Presbyterian churches in Mississippi, he prayed to become the pastor of Raymond whose office is at the Presbyterian Church, and God answered beyond his expectations. His office, providentially located next to the town's Post Office, has become a gathering place where dozens visit weekly. In five years, Zach has conducted more funerals for Raymond citizens than church members and preaches regularly at the nursing home and local school. His RTS grounding in the Word and preparation in pastoral care enable him to shepherd an entire town, creating gospel witness that extends far beyond church membership into the heart of rural community life.

Deepening Roots, Multiplying Impact

SEAN MCCANN

Charlotte | MDiv 2007

Sean's ministry exemplifies how faithful local church leadership creates generational impact. After serving internationally with MTW, he returned to pastoral ministry in the mountains of North Carolina, where his RTS training in exegesis and pastoral care shapes every aspect of his work. His commitment to loving the church as Christ does has transformed his congregation through years of faithful preaching and patient pastoral care. Sean's ministry demonstrates how deep theological roots and sustained local church commitment create lasting kingdom fruit that extends far beyond Sunday morning services.

Serving the Persecuted Church

REV. HAMID HATAMI

Dallas | MDiv 2022

Rev. Hatami's journey from Muslim persecution in Iran to pastoral ministry exemplifies faithful service across cultures. Born into a Muslim family, Hamid faced rejection and persecution after his 2003 conversion. His RTS theological training equipped him to serve the Farsi-speaking community by founding Middle East Heritage Reformed (MEHR) Ministries and Dallas's first Farsi-speaking Presbyterian Fellowship. He works to distribute Reformed resources to believers worldwide, particularly Iran's persecuted church. As he trains pastors and helps make Scripture accessible in Farsi, Rev. Hatami's ministry quietly multiplies through every resource shared and every believer equipped to faithfully serve Christ in challenging contexts.

Building Global Mission Partnerships

JOSH IRBY

Atlanta | MDiv 2020

Josh's ministry exemplifies how theological education creates ripple effects across continents and cultures. As Europe Partnership Director for Cru, his RTS training in Luke-Acts and biblical mission philosophy now shapes partnerships spanning multiple countries and organizations. His deep study of Barnabas's partnership model led to co-authoring The Barnabas Factor (IVP, 2026), a multi-author work designed to transform how churches and agencies collaborate globally. From training Ukrainian business leaders to mobilizing marketplace professionals across Europe, Josh demonstrates how one seminary graduate can multiply ministry impact through strategic partnerships. His work helps business leaders across various industries see their professional roles as opportunities for gospel witness and global mission engagement.

Steadfast in Calling

DR. MARK KIM

Global | MABS 2024

Dr. Kim's journey demonstrates how theological education can sustain ministry calling through life's greatest challenges. As a full-time Internal Medicine physician, he began his MABS at RTS Washington but faced an interruption when his child was diagnosed with cancer. Rather than abandon his calling, Dr. Kim transferred to RTS Global, where the flexible program allowed him to complete his theological education while maintaining his medical practice and caring for his family. Through God's grace, his child experienced miraculous healing, and Dr. Kim finished his degree equipped to serve at the intersection of medicine and ministry. His perseverance models how theological training multiplies through professionals who integrate faith and vocation, reaching patients and communities that traditional ministry might never touch.
