Catalog Description

A continuation of HT502 History of Christianity I that concentrates on leaders and movements of the church in the modern period of church history from the Reformation to the twentieth century.

Course Objectives

The students will grow in their ability to

- Analyze texts, ideas, and debates in their historical contexts
- Appreciate the interplay between culture and ministry in various times and places
- Gain familiarity with major theologians from the ancient and medieval eras
- Understand and assess the development of Christian doctrine through the centuries
- Read primary sources from a variety of centuries, genres, and styles

Course Requirements

Participation (10%): Each student is required to attend course, answer questions when asked, and participate in class discussions. For every unexcused absence, the student loses five points from their participation grade. Students may obtain an excused absence for legitimate reasons (illness, presbytery attendance, extenuating circumstances). Students must request an excused absence in writing prior to the day of absence. Students will lose three points from their participation grade for tardiness to class. The following rubric explains how students will be evaluated:

A (100-94)	B (93-86)	C (85-78)	D (77-70)	F (69 – 0)
Provided good ideas for class consideration; inspired others; clearly communicated desires, ideas, questions, and comments. Was respectful of others.	Participated in discussions; shared questions and comments. Was respectful of others.	Listened mainly; occasionally asked a question or offered a comment. Was respectful of others.	Seemed bored with discussions; rarely spoke up, and questions or comments were off topic. Was disrespectful of others. Or, dominated class time by not permitting others to ask their questions.	Failed to attend class—missed more than three lecture periods total.

Course Readings (20%): completion of all assigned reading. Please report your reading by the last day of class through Canvas. Late reports will not be accepted and will result in failure for the assignment. Course readings include all assigned textbook reading and PDFs available through Canvas.

Reading Briefs (20%): Students are expected to prepare a brief on each week's readings. The purpose of the brief is to summarize the thesis, outline, and argument of that text, as well as to state one's own analysis of it (in the form of questions, confirmations, objections, etc.). Briefs may include quotations from various points in the text (so long as page numbers are referenced). Briefs should be no more than 350 words. They should be written in complete sentences and edited carefully. Late briefs are assessed a 1-point deduction per calendar day, and after five days they will not be accepted.

Final Exam (50%): Students will sit for a two-hour exam that covers questions drawn from lectures and assigned readings.

MDiv* Student Learning Outcomes		Rubric	Mini-Justification
In order to measure the success of the MDiv curriculum, RTS has defined the following as the intended outcomes of the student learning process. Each course contributes to these overall outcomes. This rubric shows the contribution of this course to the MDiv outcomes. *As the MDiv is the core degree at RTS, the MDiv rubric will be used in this syllabus.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strong • Moderate • Minimal • None
Articulation (oral & written)	Broadly understands and articulates knowledge, both oral and written, of essential biblical, theological, historical, and cultural/global information, including details, concepts, and frameworks. Also includes ability to preach and teach the meaning of Scripture to both heart and mind with clarity and enthusiasm.	STRONG	Students are required to participate in discussions as well as write briefs that analyze assigned readings.
Scripture	Significant knowledge of the original meaning of Scripture. Also, the concepts for and skill to research further into the original meaning of Scripture and to apply Scripture to a variety of modern circumstances. (Includes appropriate use of original languages and hermeneutics; and integrates theological, historical, and cultural/global perspectives.)	MODERATE	This course focuses on the history of doctrine, which involves the history of exegesis.
Reformed Theology	Significant knowledge of Reformed theology and practice, with emphasis on the Westminster Standards.	MODERATE	This course examines the development of doctrine, which constitutes many of the key building blocks for Reformed theology.
Sanctification	Demonstrates a love for the Triune God that aids the student's sanctification.	STRONG	A key point of this course is to learn humility and charity by studying early church doctrine and gleaning knowledge from it.
Worldview	Burning desire to conform all of life to the Word of God. Includes ability to interact within a denominational context, within the broader worldwide church, and with significant public issues.	MODERATE	One of the course's foci is learning from the church's past errors so as not to repeat them in the present.
Winsomely Reformed	Embraces a winsomely Reformed ethos. (Includes an appropriate ecumenical spirit with other Christians, especially Evangelicals; a concern to present the Gospel in a God-honoring manner to non-Christians; and a truth-in-love attitude in disagreements.)	STRONG	If we learn how challenging it was to develop orthodox doctrine, then the aim is to be humble as we propagate it.
Pastoral Ministry	Ability to minister the Word of God to hearts and lives of both churched and unchurched, to include preaching, teaching, leading in worship, leading and shepherding the local congregation, aiding in spiritual maturity, concern for non-Christians.	MODERATE	This course examines various examples of applied ministry.
