Wingard, Charles Malcolm. Help for the New Pastor: Practical Advice for Your First Year of Ministry. Phillipsburg, NJ: P&R, 2018.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. ATTENDANCE

Class attendance is mandatory. Attendance is taken at each class. If a student anticipates an unavoidable absence, he should notify the TA in advance. Each unexcused absence subjects the student to reduction of his final grade by a full letter grade. In the event of absence, written work, including quizzes, must still be submitted by their due dates.

2. BIBLE MEMORY AND READING QUIZZES

Bible Memory and Reading Quizzes will be administered on Canvas and will be due before each class period. Ordinarily, this will be 11:59 p.m. of the day before class. See Canvas for due dates. On the quiz you will be asked if you read all the assigned readings in their entirety.

Quiz questions cover all reading assignments.

Each week one quiz question will be based on your readings of the Pastoral Epistles and Köstenberger: Identify and explain three takeaways from your readings in the Pastoral Epistles and Köstenberger that will prove helpful in pastoral ministry.

No quiz questions will be taken from The Christian Ministry. On your final exam, you will answer an essay question based upon your reading of this book (see below).

All quizzes and exams must be taken in the presence of an authorized proctor (this may be a friend or colleague, not a family member).

At the beginning of each quiz, you will be asked to fill in your proctor's name, cell phone number, and email address. Have your proctor review the exam instructions with you before you begin the exam to see what reference materials you are permitted to use, if any. No helps may be used unless explicitly stated in the exam instructions.

3. BOOK REVIEW.

You will submit one (1) three-page book review of Anyabwire's The Faithful Preacher.

In your paper, you will provide the reader with (a) a summary of the book's contents, (b) the primary arguments of the author, and (c) your evaluation.

The following formatting requirements apply: (a) Include a title page. (b) Use Times New Roman font and 12-point type. (c) Number pages in the body of the paper; do not number the title page. (d) Use one-inch margins on all four edges of the paper. (e) Lines must be double-spaced. Failure to follow these guidelines will result in a letter grade reduction.

4. FINAL EXAMINATION

Your final examination will be asked to write out some of your Bible Memory Verses and one answer. One essay question based on your reading of Theology for Ministry.

Essay question: "You have read The Christian Ministry. In 900-1000 words (no less, no more), identify and explain specific ways that you believe this book will aid you in the development of your pastoral life and practice."

In your essay:

- Indicate your word count. Failure to include a word count will result in a 10-point grade reduction.
- State if you have read the book in its entirety. Failure to read book in its entirety will result in a 25-point grade reduction.

5. DUE DATE EXTENSION POLICY

There will be no extensions granted for any assignments. You receive your full schedule of assignments well before they are due, and you must plan accordingly. Unless otherwise noted in the syllabus, late submissions will be assessed a penalty of 10 points per day late.

MDiv* Student Learning Outcomes In order to measure the success of the MDiv curriculum, RTS has defined the following as the intended outcomes of the student learning process. Each course contributes to these overall outcomes. This rubric shows the contribution of this course to the MDiv outcomes. *As the MDiv is the core degree at RTS, the MDiv rubric will be used in this syllabus.		Rubric <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strong • Moderate • Minimal • None 	Mini-Justification
Articulation (oral & written)	Broadly understands and articulates knowledge, both oral and written, of essential biblical, theological, historical, and cultural/global information, including details, concepts, and frameworks. Also includes ability to preach and teach the meaning of Scripture to both heart and mind with clarity and enthusiasm.	Strong	All oral and written work must demonstrate good style, grammar, and syntax.
Scripture	Significant knowledge of the original meaning of Scripture. Also, the concepts for and skill to research further into the original meaning of Scripture and to apply Scripture to a variety of modern circumstances. (Includes appropriate use of original languages and hermeneutics; and integrates theological, historical, and cultural/global perspectives.)	Strong	Students work must demonstrate solid scriptural exegesis, and how scripture shapes pastoral ministry.
Reformed Theology	Significant knowledge of Reformed theology and practice, with emphasis on the Westminster Standards.	Strong	Student papers will demonstrate a solid grasp of Reformed Theology and its contributions to the church's understanding of pastoral care.
Sanctification	Demonstrates a love for the Triune God that aids the student's sanctification.	Strong	Students will study the connection between personal holiness and God-honoring pastoral ministry.
Worldview	Burning desire to conform all of life to the Word of God. Includes ability to interact within a denominational context, within the broader worldwide church, and with significant public issues.	Moderate	Students will address contemporary issues in a manner informed by scripture.
Winsomely Reformed	Embraces a winsomely Reformed ethos. (Includes an appropriate ecumenical spirit with other Christians, especially Evangelicals; a concern to present the Gospel in a God-honoring manner to non-Christians; and a truth-in-love attitude in disagreements.)	Strong	Student will develop an approach to pastoral ministry that appeals to the conscience while showing grace and sympathy to God's people.
Pastoral Ministry	Ability to minister the Word of God to hearts and lives of both church and unchurched, to include preaching, teaching, leading in worship, leading and shepherding the local congregation, aiding in spiritual maturity, concern for non-Christians.	Strong	In pastoral ministry, students will learn to use language that is accessible to ordinary congregations.
