Grades

Forum Discussions (15%):

The student is required to interact in two (2) forums:

1. Student-Professor Posts (15 total posts)
 - A. Personal Introduction Forum: The student is required to post a brief personal introduction to the professor/class. Suggested details include your vocation, where you live, your church background, why you chose RTS, and what you hope to gain through the course (1 required post).
 - B. 5 Topical Discussion Q&A Forums: The student is required to answer each topical discussion question with one (1) response. The professor will acknowledge the student's answer and will follow up with a subsequent question to which the student must also answer with one (1) response. Each topical discussion question, therefore, requires two (2) total posts/responses from the student (Total of 5 forums x 2 posts = 10 total posts). The professor and/or TA reserves the right not to award points in the case where the intended structure of substantive back and forth interaction has not been followed.
 - C. Student-Professor Forum: The student is required to post four (4) times in this forum. Posts in this forum should focus on course-related content such as research paper topics, lectures and reading assignments, or other academic issues related to the course.
2. Student-Student Forum (5 total posts)

A post may be either a new topic or a response to an already existing topic.

Research Paper (30%):

The student will write a 10-12 double-spaced paper. For this assignment, use the resources listed in each lesson's Recommended Reading section and any others you desire. No formal thesis statement is required. This is more of a research and reflection paper.

You will need to write on one of the following topics:

1. Differing views in the Presbyterian tradition on the number and nature of the offices of the church. Note some implications of each view.
2. Compare and contrast the various kinds of church governance (presbyterian, episcopal, and congregational). Note the biblical basis claimed for each, as well as the strengths and weaknesses of each.
3. The biblical basis and application of church discipline in a Presbyterian context.
4. The implications of Christ's kingly office for church polity.

See section titled "Research Paper Instructions" in this syllabus.

Church Conflict/Discipline Project (15%):

You will need to decide upon a church conflict problem (real or hypothetical) to deal with (get approval of topic from the professor first).

For the problem, you need to show:

1. A summary of the issues involved. [Note: do NOT use real names of people if this is based on an actual situation.]
2. Outline a plan of action with supporting Biblical basis – from the beginning of the matter to the conclusion.
3. List a short bibliography of sources consulted for the action plan.

Denominational Standards Worksheet (10%):

You are to take the Denominational Standards Questionnaire and provide an answer to each question based on the denominational standards you are studying for this course (ARP, OPC, or PCA). In other words, the content of your answers must come entirely from the governing documents, NOT from the Bible, other sources, or your own opinions. Answers may be brief but need to answer the questions adequately and clearly. In addition to providing a summary answer, you also need to provide the precise location(s) for the answers in the governing documents of the denomination you selected.

Reading Report (10%):

The student must complete all of the required reading. Reading assignments are broken down week by week within the LMS. The Reading Report will indicate the amount of required reading that has been completed during the semester and must be filled out and submitted at the end of the course.

Presbytery Report (10%):

You will need to attend a local presbytery meeting for at least 3 hours. It can either be a presbytery of which you are a part, or another NAPARC presbytery.

For this assignment:

1. List the name of the presbytery (including the denomination), date, and location.
2. List the name of the moderator and clerk for that meeting.
3. Summarize 2 significant matters of discussion. What was the basic outcome of each matter?
4. Summarize 2 or 3 particular things which you learned about Roberts' Rules and/or the way in which business was conducted. Take note of the degree to which business was handled formally or informally.

Review Quiz(5%):

There will be a short objective quiz focused on the denomination-specific track lectures that a student chose. The quiz will only cover the two denomination-specific lectures. Further details can be found in Canvas.

Mentor Report OR Course Application Paper (5%):

If you are enrolled in an RTS Global degree or certificate program submit a mentor report. Every portion of the form (goals, summaries, assessments, and signatures) should be filled out completely by both the student and the mentor to receive full credit. You can download the Mentor Report form in your Canvas classroom. See specific instructions for this assignment in Canvas.

If you are receiving your degree through another RTS campus (Orlando, Jackson, Charlotte, et. al.), or special student (e.g. from another seminary), submit a 250-word summary of how you perceive what you have learned in this course will fit into the objectives you have for your ministry, your educational goals, or other objectives you wish to achieve in life. Course Application Papers (CAP) that fall well-short of 250 words will receive a grade deduction. See specific instructions for this assignment in Canvas.

Assignments:

Best practice for your time management is for you to submit all assignments at the end of the week in which they fall, using the upload links provided in the LMS. All work must be submitted by midnight of the course end date, per your course start letter. You are responsible for turning in all assignments on time; no late submissions are permitted. Any student who needs an extension must get approval from the Registrar prior to that time.
