

HEBREW EXEGESIS

MARK D. FUTATO. PH.D.

020T5150, 2 HOURS

FALL 2026

REFORMED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, ORLANDO

Course Overview

Course Description

This course is designed to increase your skills in the science and art of Hebrew Exegesis. You will learn a model for interpreting the Hebrew text through reading two textbooks on exegesis. You will apply this model through a series of assignments and through writing an exegesis paper on a sub-text of 1 Kings 17-18. You will also increase your knowledge of biblical Hebrew for exegesis through your study of the text of Jonah, your use of an intermediate reference grammar, your learning of the Hebrew accent system, your study of Hebrew vocabulary, and your review of Hebrew verb forms.

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, you will:

- Know your Hebrew Bible better,
 - Having used Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia and
- Know Hebrew grammar better,
 - Having reviewed the morphology of the noun and verb and having advanced your knowledge of Hebrew syntax,
 - Having learned how to use an intermediate reference grammar: A Biblical Hebrew Reference Grammar.
 - Having learned how to use a Hebrew lexicon such as A Concise Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon of the Old Testament or The Concise Classical Hebrew Dictionary.
- Know the exegetical method better,
 - Having studied the exegetical method in Seeing the Text and Old Testament Exegesis and
 - Having practiced the exegetical method on 1 Kings 17-18.
- Know more about the message of the book of Jonah,
 - Having read the book in Hebrew,
 - Having studied the grammar and theology of the book,
 - Having examined your vision for God's work in the world, and
 - Having become more like God in your compassion for those who are not like you.

Course Dates: August 27-December 3
